Naples, April 6.

ON Saturday laſt their Majeſties ſet out from hence for Portici, and returned the ſame Evening to their Palace in this City. They are equipping in this Port, two Gallies and two Galliots, in order to cruize on the Coaſt of Sicily; from whence we learn, that the Corſairs of Barbary have appeared there for ſome Days paſt in great Numbers. The Ceremony of opening the Jubilee was performed here on the 28th paſt with all imaginable Solemnity; ſince which great Crowds of People of all Ranks and Conditions are daily reſorting to the Churches appointed by our Archbiſhop, in order to gain the Indulgences of it. The Orders iſſued by the King ſome Time ſince for repairing the Great Roads throughout this Kingdom, not having been put in Execution on Account of the continual Rains which have fallen for theſe two Months paſt; his Majeſty has cauſed new Orders to be iſſued for repairing the ſame with all Diligence; and we doubt not but they will be made paſſable for all Sorts of Carriages in a ſhort Time, which will greatly promote the Commerce of this Kingdom, by reducing conſiderably the Rates of all Land Carriage.

Petersbourg, April 9. The River Neva, which has been ſhut up for a conſiderable Time paſt with Ice, is now open again; whereupon Orders have been ſent to Cronſtadt, for all Officers and Sailors belonging to her Imperial Majeſty's Squadron in that Port, to repair immediately on board their reſpective Ships, on Pain of ſevere Puniſhment.

Rome, April 10. On Friday the 2d Inſtant, a private Congregation was held at Cardinal Valenti's, Secretary of State; it was compoſed of the Cardinals Jerome and Colonne, and divers Prelates, in order to deliberate on the Affair concerning the new Port of Anzio, when it was reſolved to ſuſpend that Work for the preſent, on Account of the extraordinary Expences attending the carrying into Execution the Plan that was laid before them. The two new Conſervators of the Roman People have taken their Oaths in that Quality from the Hands of Cardinal Valenti. A very ancient Tomb was lately dug up near Santa Gemini, at an Eſtate belonging to the Prince of Santa Croce, in which was contained an Urn filled with Medals of Gold; but at preſent no one has been able to explain the Characters upon any of them. The Commander Solari, whom the Grand Maſter of Malta ſent hither to take Care of his Affairs, has not as yet taken upon him the Character of Ambaſſador, and 'tis generally reported that he will not aſſume it, till the Embaſſage of the Bailiff Solari, his Uncle, expires. On Saturday laſt Cardinal Rezzonico received a Courier from Venice, and immediately after had a private Conference with the Pope, in order to communicate to him the Contents of his Diſpatches, which related to the adjuſting, in an amicable Manner, ſome ſmall Difficulties, which are as yet unadjuſted, concerning the Patriarcate of Aquileja. The late Inundations having cauſed great Damages in the Port of Fiumicino, they are actually at Work, by Order of the Pope, in making the neceſſary Repairs, which it is thought will be finiſhed in the Courſe of next Month. Prince Doria, accompanied by the Princeſs his Spouſe, and all his Family, arrived here on Monday laſt from Naples, and alighted at the Palace of Pamphila, and the ſame Night was viſited by the Conſtable Colonna, and ſeveral other Perſons of the Firſt Diſtinction. The Cardinals Caraffa and Paſſionei left this City Yeſterday Morning, the firſt for his Biſhoprick of Albano, and the other to paſs ſome Time in Retirement at the Convent of the Camaldules.

Florence, April 10. Count Charles, Son of the Count de Richecourt, Preſident of the Council of the Regency of this Dutchy, arrived here on the 5th Inſtant from Leghorn, in Company with ſeveral other young Noblemen who went on board the Emperor's three Men of War to the Levant. Within theſe few Days paſt the Weather has been extremely cold in theſe Parts, and a conſiderable Quantity of Snow has lately fallen on the Mountains.

Genoa, April 14. As the Means which the Government have made Uſe of for eſtabliſhing the Credit of the Bank of St. George, have not as yet had their deſired Effect, their Bills being ſtill at about 25 per Cent. Diſcount, 'tis ſaid that a Duty of 10 per Cent. upon all Penſions will be added to the Duties already granted in Favour of that Bank. M. Auguſtin Pinelli, who has reſided for ſome Time paſt at Turin, in Quality of Envoy Extraordinary from this Republick,

[Price Two-pence.]

Republick, is returned hither, and has already communicated to the Government the Succeſs of his Commiſſion. By the laſt Letters from Madrid we are informed, that the King and Queen were preparing ſome very grand Preſents to be ſent to the young Archdutcheſs, of which the Empreſs Queen of Hungary was lately delivered, and to whom their Catholick Majeſties ſtood Godfather and Godmother. 'Tis generally reported here, that the Grand Maſter of Malta has at laſt conſented to the ſetting at Liberty the famous Baſhaw of Rhodes, and that, in Conſequence thereof, he had embarked on board a French Veſſel for Conſtantinople. We learn from Modena, that a conſiderable Augmentation was going to be made in the Forces of that Dutchy; and that Orders were ſent to France to buy up a ſufficient Quantity of Arms, &c. in order to fill the Arſenals.

Vienna, April 17. The Funeral of Cardinal Collonitz, our late Archbiſhop, was performed on Thurſday laſt with great Pomp, all the Clergy attending, and all the Bells in this City and Suburbs tolling during the Proceſſion. 'Tis ſaid that Field Marſhal Count Hohenembs will certainly have the Regiment of Horſe lately vacant by the Death of Prince Hohenzollern. Prince Lobkowitz, to whom the Empreſs Queen has given the Command of the Imperial Troops in Hungary, is ſtill preparing to ſet out for that Kingdom. Baron Winckelman, Major General in this Service, who was lately appointed by her Imperial Majeſty to introduce a new Exerciſe amongſt the Imperial Cavalry, died here on Tueſday laſt. 'Tis ſaid that a Demand will be made, at the enſuing Diet of Hungary, of a conſiderable Augmentation of the Duties, in order to enable their Imperial Majeſties to defray the great Expences they will neceſſarily be at in repairing and augmenting the Fortifications of Temeſwar and other ſtrong Places of that Kingdom.

Dreſden, April 20. The King ſet out this Morning for Torgaw, to take the Diverſion of Hunting; and the Queen and all the Royal Family are preparing to ſet out for St. Hubertsberg, in order to reſide at that Palace during his Majeſty's Abſence; after which their Majeſties will ſet out together for Leipſick, to be preſent at the Fair.

Berlin, April 21. The King is determined to take a Tour to Ooſtfrize, to examine the new Works that are carrying on by his Order at the Port of Embden, and his Majeſty propoſes ſetting out for that Place accordingly about the Middle of next Month.

Hambourg, April 23. We learn from Roſtock, that Prince Chriſtian Louis, Duke of Mecklenbourg Schwerin, died on the 3d Inſtant, in the 68th Year of his Age. He came to the Regency of that Dutchy by the Death of Duke Charles Leopold his Brother, and is ſucceeded by Prince Frederick his Son, who is upwards of 40 Years of Age. We learn from Dantzick, that Commiſſaries are arrived there from ſome foreign Courts, with Commiſſions to purchaſe great Quantities of Corn.

Hague, April 29. His Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange, who has put off his Departure for Zealand, has lately admitted ſeveral of the Directors of the Eaſt India Company to a Conference with his Highneſs, in which they communicated to him ſeveral important Affairs relating to that Company. On Wedneſday Morning laſt died here Count Wartenſleben, Major General in the Service of this Republick, Colonel of a Regiment of Foot, and Adjutant General to the Prince of Orange.

Whitehall, April 23.

The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute the Right Honourable Charles Earl of Egremont, to be Lord Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum of and in the County of Cumberland.

The Second Edition of

LES MOEURS; or, MANNERS.

Accurately Translated from the French. Wherein the Principles of Morality, or Social Duties, viz. Piety, Wisdom, Prudence, Fortitude, Justice, Temperance, Love, Friendship, Humanity, &c. &c. are described in all their Branches; the Obligations of them shown to consist in our Nature, and the Enlargement of them strongly enforc'd. Here Parents are taught, that, giving Birth to a Child, scarcely entitles them to that honourable Name, without a strict Discharge of Parental Duties; the Friend will find, there are a Thousand other Decorums, besides the doing of a Favour, to entitle him to the tender Name of Friend; and the Good-natur'd Man will find, he ought to extend that Quality beyond the Bounds of his own Neighbourhood or Party.

The Whole wrote in a Manner entirely New and Entertaining, and enliven'd with real Characters, drawn from Life, and fitted to instill the Principles of all social Virtues into tender Minds.
